Dear Mr. Van De Voorde:

I am responding to the ads for a music editor (in either Fort Lauderdale or Los Angeles) on the A.A.N. website.

I was the music editor for Philadelphia's largest weekly, the Welcomat which today is known as Philadelphia Weekly. As music editor I covered the entire spectrum and of music from pop to classical and brought several new writers to the paper. I was the chief pop music columnist for 11 years.

In addition to this, I was also copy editor, associate editor and production manager.

I have been involved in music in several capacities my entire life. I have interviewed several major music figures (a list is enclosed).

Also enclosed are several clips of my writing and my resume.

Thank you for your consideration. I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

Peter Brown
